LYCEUM SCHOLARS PROGRAM

THE CLEMSON INSTITUTE FOR THE STUDY OF CAPITALISM

America's first and only four year university-based academic program dedicated to exploring the moral, political, and economic foundations of a free society.

Open to incoming freshmen, the curriculum develops students' faculties of inquiry and ignites their passion for knowledge. It presents students with ideas that are fundamental, timeless, and life-changing.

The Lyceum Program uses a Great Books approach to studying liberty, free markets, the American Founding, and moral character. All Lyceum Scholars will be assigned a faculty "Socratic tutor" who will closely monitor and guide their intellectual development for their entire four-year education.

Those interested in becoming Lyceum Scholars should apply in their senior year of high school to Clemson University and to the Lyceum Scholars Program.
